Today the spacious auditorium of this building is the centre for all social, educational and cultural activities. During the grand centenary celebrations, a beautiful idol of Goddess Saraswathi, who has been showering her blessings on one and all, was installed. The elegant Ashoka Stambha was set up in front of the college building as a strong symbol of the highly laudable services that this college has been rendering to promote the cause of education in conformity with the motto of our University, 'Nahi Jnaanena sadrisham - Nothing is equal to Knowledge'. These two are the enduring gifts of love and reverence offered by the famous Sculptor Sri Siddalingaswamy.

A Saga of Eminence : One Hundred Years of Maharaja's (First Grade) College 1894-1994

The year 1994 marked the one hundredth year of starting BA classes in Maharaja's College. It was in 1894, Maharaja's College was upgraded to First Grade College offering BA courses. Till then it was a Second Grade College providing school education to enable appearance for matriculation and BA examinations conducted by Madras University.

The genesis of the College is traced to the founding of Raja's Free School in 1833 by His Highness Mumtaz Ali Krishna Raja Wodeyar, the visionary Maharaja of the Princely State of Mysore. Macaulay's Minute had motivated the liberal minded benevolent Maharaja to this noble act. Over the years, the little school transformed itself into a great institution of learning drawing upon the spirit and energies of many scholar-teachers and in reciprocity sending out people who made their presence felt in different walks of life.

The purpose of Maharaja's Free School was to provide elementary education to the pupils of Mysore in English Literature, Mathematics, Kannada, Hindustani and Marathi. The budget for the school was provided by His Highness. Lack of interest in English education among the Indians did not bring many students to the school, although education was given gratis. For better management, the school was handed over to the Wesleyan Mission in 1835 and in 1850 the school was returned to the fold of His Highness. Around the same time, an education policy was formulated by the British rulers which envisaged an active role for the government in promoting education.

In 1862, the status of the school was raised to that of a High School with Mr. James Dunning as the Principal. The founder of the Raja's School, His Highness Krishnaraja Wadiyar Bahadur III, passed away on 27 th March 1868 and after his death the Raja's Free School was taken over by the Government. The Government thought it desirable to impose a small fee on students as free education was considered unsound in principle. Subsequently, the school became a centre of the Madras University for the conduct of Matriculation and B.A., examinations. B.A., courses were introduced and withdrawn due to lack of adequate strength. However, admission to the school had begun to improve. In 1897, the school was designated as a Second Grade College under the name of The Maharaja's College, Mysore, and C.M. Leonard was appointed Principal.

Mr. H. J. Bhabha, M.A., became the principal of the college in 1884, and in pursuance of the wishes of His Highness, he submitted a memorandum to the Governor General for raising of the Maharaja's College to the First Grade. During Bhabha's principalship the performance of students in the examinations was remarkable. The College stood First in the year 1885 and stood Third in the years 1886 and 1887 among 27 Second Grade Colleges of Southern India.

In recognition of his excellent services, Mr. Bhabha was appointed Secretary to the Government Education Department and was succeeded by Mr. John Weir, a mathematician, who continued till 1910. His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor of Wales laid the foundation stone for a new building for the college (the present building) in Gordon Park on 29th November 1891. The magnificent Indo-Saracenic edifice, a splendid architecture, was completed in 1893. The college was shifted to the new building in the same year. In 1894 The College was raised to First Grade. B.A., classes with History and Mathematics as optional subjects began to be offered. By 1910, the High school was bifurcated from the College and shifted to Maharaja's High School. His Highness continued to show keen interest in the progress of the college. The tradition of enlightened learning under awesome principals and teachers continued. Mr. Thomas Denham was appointed Principal in 1910.

Sir M. Visveswaraiah, the farsighted Dewan of Mysore, gave fillip to the idea of 'University of Mysore'. Mr. T. Denham and Mr. C. R. Reddy were sent to U.S.A. and Australia respectively to study the functioning of Universities in those countries. They submitted a report on educational progress made in those countries and, as a follow-up, a bill was passed in the Mysore Legislative Council in 1916 for the creation of University of Mysore. It was the first University outside the domain of British Authority in India.

Mr. C. R. Reddy became the first principal of Maharaja's College in the new set up of Mysore University. He was succeeded by Dr. N. S. Subba Rao of Political Science Department who had returned from Cambridge with excellent academic achievements.

The faculty of the College consisted of Mr. K. T. Shah of the Department of Commerce, Prof. A.R. Wadia, Dr. S. Radhakrishnan (who later became the President of India), Dr. M. Hiriyanna of the Sanskrit department, Prof. R. Mukherjee and Prof. S. V. Venkateswara of History, Mr. J. C. Rollo, Mr. A. B. Macikntosh and Mr. B. M. Srikantaiah of English. Dr. N. S. Subba Rao became the Vice-Chancellor of the University in 1932. A number of new optional subjects were offered to B.A. students. M.A. courses were also started and continued to be offered in Maharaja's College till the creation of 'Manasagangotri' campus in 1960. Now, Maharaja's College is a constituent college of the University of Mysore.

Prof. Rollo succeeded Dr. N. S. Subba Rao as Principal of the College in 1928 and continued till 1943. (In 1936, Prince Jayachamarajendra Wadiyar did his B.A., course. His son Prince Srikantadatta Narasimharaja Wadiyar was also an alumnus of the college). This period was a vibrant one with the fame of the college reaching new heights.

The students and teachers of the College did not remain bystanders in the Freedom Struggle. While some participated in the freedom struggle directly, a few others chose writing to express their anguish over the sufferings in their motherland.

Prevention of Sexual Harassment of Women Working/Studying in University of Mysore

Studies show that sexual harassment at workplace is rampant and present in all kinds of organizations. Sexual harassment is all about expression of male power over women. It is used to remind women of their vulnerability and subordinate status. Sexual harassment affects the lives of innumerable working women. However it is often hidden or not reported making women suffer silently.

'UNWELCOME' is the key word in defining sexual harassment. If a woman faces harassment in her workplace on the basis of her gender alone, it is termed as 'Sexual Harassment at workplace'. Work place is any place of work, where a working relationship exists. Applying this to 'Educational Setup' it includes women staff/students/ research scholars etc of the institution.

In this context the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India passed a historic judgment on 13th August 1997 concerning sexual harassment at workplace. The court has thus ratified the demand made by women's groups in a writ petition 'Vishaka versus State of Rajasthan' (in connection with Rajasthan's Bhavari Bai Rape Case) for the enforcement of fundamental rights of working women guaranteed under the Constitution. It points out that sexual harassment at workplace is a crime and is a violation of Fundamental Rights of women workers given in Article 14 (Right to Equality), Article 19(g) (Right to freedom of profession) and Article 21 (Protection of life and personal liberty).

- Physical contacts and advances
- A demand or request for sexual favours
- Sexually coloured remarks
- Showing pornography
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of a sexual nature

When to Complain :

- Expects/demands sexual favours to get a work done.
- Expects/instructs you to meet him alone/late hours
- Makes an unwelcome remark with sexual connotations, like sexually explicit compliments/cracking loud jokes with sexual connotations/making sexist remarks/double meaning statements.
- Makes an unwelcome demand or request (whether directly or by implication) for sexual favours

To whom should the complaint be given?

- Complaint Committee in the workplace
- To the superior concerned in the workplace/place of study e.g. Boss, Principal, Director, Manager etc.
- Vice Chancellor/Registrar of the University.

- Sexual Harassment Complaints Committee, University of Mysore - Chairperson, Secretary, Members.
